Bad Religion, God's Love

Strikin' at mental apparitions Like a drunk on a vacant street Silently beset by the hands of time Indelicate in its fury An aberrant crack as skeletons yield To unrelenting gravity While viruses prowl for helpless victims Who succumb rapidly Tell me Tell me where is the love? In a careless creation When there's no above There's no justice Just a cause and a cure And a bounty of sufferin' It seems we all endure And what I'm frightened of Is that they call it, God's love When twisted torment, make believe There's a truth and we all submit Believe my eyes, my brain replies To all that they interpret So tell me Tell me where is the love? In a careless creation When there's no above There's no justice Just a cause and a cure And a bounty of sufferin' It seems we all endure And what I'm frightened of Is that they call it, God's love I know there's no reason for alarm But who needs perspective When it comes to pain and harm We can change our minds There's a better prize But first, you've got to tell me Tell me where is the love? In a careless creation When there's no above There's no justice Just a cause and a cure And a bounty of sufferin' It seems we all endure And what I'm frightened of Is that they call it, God's love They call it God's love

My pain is God's love
