Bad Religion, Incomplete

Mother, father

Look at your little monster

I'm a hero, I'm a zero

I'm the butt of the worst joke in history

I'm a lock without a key

A city with no door

A prayer without faith

A show without a score

A bad word, a wink, a nod, a shiver

An untold story, sex without fury

A creeping gray memory

I am incomplete

Incomplete

Doctor, cure me

What is the cause of my condition

This madness shoots me

Like bullets smashing glass in a silent movie

I'm a trap without a spring

A temple with no God

A jack without an ace

The tip of your tongue

I'm a promise and an unmailed letter

An unbuilt motor, deck without a joker

Creeping gray memory

I am incomplete

Incomplete

Tell Saint Peter not to bet on me, yeah

I got a naked obsession

A good intention gone bad

I am incomplete
