

Bad Religion, Quality Or Quantity

Offer me eternity
And I'll trade a cup of coffee and a dime
Lookin' for a handout
On behalf of those who have so little time
But who wants to live on just seventy cents a day?
Paddin' your pockets doesn't make this a better place
Cereal and water is a feast for some you say
You price tag on existence can't cover your double face
Quality or quantity
Quality or quantity
Quality or quantity, a choice you have to make
Dippin' in the icin'
Bringin' home the largest turkey from the field
Breakin' all the piggy banks, scoopin' up the booty
Lickin' all the right holes, bolsterin' the payroll
Why reduce life to a dollar amount per day?
Why let the world think this is the American way
Your uneaten greens are a feast for some you say
Survival and living are concepts you can't equate
Quality or quantity
Quality or quantity
Quality or quantity, don't tell me they're the same
Quality or quantity
Quality or quantity, a choice you have to make
