Bad Religion, The State Of The End Of The Miller

Neighbors, nobody loves you like we do. neighbors, your government has triumphed in finally making the economic well-being of it's subjects, today we have insulated you from countless factions who to Childish notions of social welfare; why, you're even kept uninformed of useless propagandist journate they hadn't been doing something wrong!!). and who better to dispense such blatantly evident factors.

Acid rain is a thing of the past.... too many possible causes, too little significance for our modern th Arrow minded laborers, too many mouths to feed, hehe, and too much burden on the payroll! who Exploiting it's uneducated children anyway.

The internet has expanded our ability to pacify average americans better than ever by offering fant And the heart of your social life. such reclusive behavior helps clear the roads and public works fro Oday you are freer than ever to do what you want, provided you can pay for it!

Remember, the first word in usa is us! We have arrived, neighbors, we are the privileged elite