

Bad Religion, Unacceptable

Bad Religion
Against The Grain Unacceptable

irreducible is the word for today, plastic compounds and nuclear waste, what the hell is the matter with the pople on this planet? have we all gone insane? the stigma of industrial progress killing us over and over agin, one part per trillion... unacceptable, on part per billion... unacceptable, one part per million... unacceptable, this mammoth program set upon us courtesy of the U.S.A., inexcusable are the men before our time, i'd like to kick their ass for what they left behind, cancer-causing chemicals, ozone-depleting aerosols, we're all going to fry, so put your head between your legs and kiss your ass goodbye
