Bananarama, Cheers Then

Cheers then, here's two old friends We thought we'd never say goodbye But those good times came to an end And it's not worth another try Familiar place, familiar face But feeling's not the same Try to relive what we once did It's just a silly game Cheers then, here's two old friends We thought we'd never say goodbye But those good times came to an end And it's not worth another try One of the crowd, it felt so safe I never felt alone Together every day and night When you and me were young Ooh ooh ooh

Cheers then, here's two old friends
We thought we'd never say goodbye
But those good times came to an end
And it's not worth another try
Time that lapsed, a bond collapsed
We never planned for that
You felt betrayed I let you down
You're better on your own
Ooh ooh ooh
Cheers then, it had to end
Cheers then, another try
Cheers then, here's two old friends
Cheers then, we're saying goodbye
Cheers then
