

Bebe Black, I'll Wait

Didn't take the day that I was suppose to Didn't turn up when I know that I was meant to
I wait outside when I should stay in
I couldn't stop being said that I was a better thing
I come ahead when you said you like too much
I wrote about sex and you prefer a love song
You want me to stay but I wanna go home
I'm just a little bent and not just you fuu grown
And I wanna got to broken 'don't let go to broken shield
I'm tired of my ___
I want a day so ___
But I'm just so afraid, I wish that I could leave you but I never be that brave

So I wait and I wait to the end to drive you in the word seem to
And I'll wait and I'll wait the crumble where was we do

Once I stay at the bedroom door
And I do after dead flowers
'it's the one how dress to me
'you never know it's about to see
I couldn't miss brush my today,
I didn't wash my hand
I kept all the window shades so I can' my own and rock
Sort od phoptograps
Cuz I don't wanna see those, those that never changing
So way you wanna leave?
Ooh I pick up in my suitcase and I turn on my phone
'and my ticket home
I know that you won't understand it's nothing like you say
I wish that I could leave you but I never be that brave

So I'll wait and I'll wait the crumble 'I wait, so I wait
'to saving through, so I wait, I wait '
I wait and I wait to the end to drive you in the '
So I'll wait and I'll wait the crumble 'I wait, so I wait
So I'll wait and I'll wait the crumble 'I wait, so I wait
And I wait and I wait and I wait and I wait and I wait and I wait and I wait
