

Planet Smashers, Cooler Than You

I get and nervous and I shy away
When I see her dressed that way
She must have problems meeting new people
Can't talk to her without seeming like a creep, oh
She's so much cooler than you
She's a hipster, she looks fine hep,
Just sitting here with my two coffees
She smiles at me out of pity
But she don't understand what she can't see
I guess she's to cool for me
