

Sarah Silverman, Gal Gadot, and Cast, A Place C

what can it be that calls me to this place today?
this lawless car baller
what can it be

am I a baby pigeon
sprouting wings to soar?
was that a metaphor?
hey, there's a dollar store

look, I am rhyming
my spirit's climbing
as I am called through this fog of mace
to this place
Called Slaughter Race

welcome back
watch your head
hate to see you end up dead

let's get this party rollin'
is that appliance stolen

we have
dumpster fires
and burning tires
that great white
in the serwer
you will be happy
that you know her

dogs and cats
they sure taste great
with a side of license plate some find us deplorable
