

Simply Red, How Could I Fall

How could I fall for someone so superficial?

Funny how the things that you can never have
Needle you more
Tired of standing in the rain
Praying for sunshine again

I remember your eyes
Wish I could see through them
How could I fall
If I could

Our love was like the wind
We blew it away
Tired of dealing with your games
Praying I'll never need you again

I remember your eyes
Wish I could see through them
We could have loved so much
Why didn't we try to make it right
Would it have been enough
If I could

I remember your eyes
Wish I could see through them
How could I fall
If I could
