

Simply Red, Your Eyes (Mousse T Accoustic)

Who's to know where time will lead us now?
I can't believe this is happening now
I'm not scared, I'm just wondering how
I wanna see your eyes

I wanna look into your eyes again
I wanna look into the windows of your soul...again, again

When I look at you I fumble, my confidence takes a tumble
But when I look into your eyes, I just crumble
'Cos I know that it's you that my heart burns for That it's you that I'm yearning for

I wanna look into your eyes again
I wanna look into the windows of your soul...again, again

Who's to know where time will lead us now
I can't believe this is happening now
Well I'm not scared, I'm just wondering how
I wanna see your eyes, I wanna make it right

I wanna look into your eyes again
I wanna look into the windows of your soul...again, again

When I look at you I fumble, my confidence takes a tumble
