

SKIP, Cry To Me

Sometimes it's so hard to be happy
When all I do is hold on to your insecurity
The hurting heart is the most painful

Cry
Cry to me
If you want
Cry
It's fine by me, cause I 'll hold you inside
Hurts you deep
So cry to me

When will you emerge from your high way?
From the true feelings that you won't escape
Maybe it's my mind going too far in space
You fly away to a perfect place
There's no other spot I'd rather lay
So don't be scared, no I won't hurt you

Cry
Cry to me
If you want
Cry
It's fine by me, cause I 'll hold you inside
Hurts you deep
So cry to me

We're better together in any weather
I'll be your sweater
If it rains I will be your umbrella
No one is perfect
I feel alone in the shadow
You're not the one to blame
I know what I believe is real
Let it all go
It will make you feel better

Cry
Cry to me
If you want
Cry
It's fine by me, cause I 'll hold you inside
Hurts you deep
So cry to me
