

So Many Dynamos, We Panic In A Pew

Knees down on the concrete
Hands out at arms reach
Admitting defeat I said
What do you, do you, want from me
Knees down on the concrete
Hands out at arms reach
Ask myself why I try, I said
I don't know, I don't know, know why
Should I even ask why?
Do I need to ask why?
Gavels break on judgment day until both sides agree
Write down every words I say and use them against me
Can I get a witness?
Manuscripted, documented sins will set you free
Please be careful when you kick the chair from underneath
Can I get a witness?
