

Subb, Listen Up

It ain't my voice, that you heard on the radio
Not gonna waste my time, i'm gonna leave it up to you
And i draw the line you'll be sittin' all alone
Pick it up now you just have to go, chasing the girls you hardly know?
What about the times you like to share, what about that girl who used to care?
So when you have to go think about the options that you know
(Solo)
It's my own choice, if i'm not happy with your lies
You're begging me to change we fight & argue all the time
Now it's your turn to listen up; let's call it quits and give it up
Shut your fuckin' mouth
