

Subb, Looking For Direction

Devastated by the echoes
Who'd ever thought that I'd know
Overwhelmed by the words you said
Make no sense in my head
Understated more than one time
Looking for the perfect line
Still trying hard to keep it going on
Falling down again...
I'm just looking for direction
But I don't understand
What's the story behind your eyes?
And everyday it's all confusion
Tell me more
I'm down again...
Devastated by the distance
We are more than worlds away
Overwhelmed with all the things you did
It wasn't nearly fair
Underrated for way too long
I think I don't belong
Still trying hard to keep it going on
Falling down again...
