

Subb, No Way

You always said that you loved me, and I really thought that it was true
Maybe sometimes you were mean, I never thought I could lose you
When you broke up I cried for weeks, I had hard times getting over it
Now I hear you want me back, but don't even think about that
No way, I only want to live my life
No way, you'll never be my fucking wife
No way, I will not waste another day
No way, so could you please just walk away!!
We had good times but it's over now, cause breaking up is forever girl
I feel so much better alone, and please forget that I have a phone
I won't be crying anymore, I won't be knocking at your door
Stop your little game darling, cause now you know that's it's The end

[Chorus]

[Solo]

[Breakdown]

[Chorus x2]
